Pueblo Community College Joins the M-List
School offers for-credit program options in machining technology

WASHINGTON, April 4, 2017: The Manufacturing Institute is pleased to announce Pueblo Community College as the newest member of the M-List.

Pueblo Community College is a premier teaching institution focused on providing academic and service excellence to help its students acquire the 21st Century skills needed to better their lives. With more than 70 programs, PCC fosters economic development and utilizes strong partnerships in the communities it serves through its Pueblo, Fremont and Southwest campuses.

The Manufacturing Institute’s M-List designation is an acknowledgement of Pueblo Community College’s outstanding machining technology courses. Enrolled students will be eligible to receive certifications from the National Institute for Metalworking Skills, as well as receive college credit.

The M-List recognizes high schools, community colleges, and universities that are teaching manufacturing students to industry standards. Specifically, these institutions offer students the opportunity to earn NAM-Endorsed Manufacturing Skills Certifications as a standard part of their manufacturing education programs.

Companies and schools interested in joining the Manufacturing Institute’s effort or learning more can visit http://www.themanufacturinginstitute.org/Skills-Certification/M-List/M-List.aspx.
